

Radar interferogram is zoom from previous figure. Rift-flank uplifts are largely symmetrical while there is a pronounced asymmetry in the rift opening component. The Makaopuhi caldera shows more than 40 mm of local inflation. GPS receivers with continuous vector measurements are marked by red triangles.